

Make Your Spaces Cleaner & Healthier

Providing clean work environments is always important, but in the age of COVID-19, it's a necessity. Ensuring proper hygiene is critical to reducing risks for infection throughout your facilities. Trash cans harbor many types of disease-causing germs including Salmonella, E. Coli, and Listeria. Well-organized central waste collection solutions deliver on your responsibility to keep interiors clean and safe. It also enhances daily personal experiences and gives visible reassurance that you're doing everything you can to protect employee and visitor health while they use your spaces.

With Sodexo Centralized Waste Collection Solutions, you can simplify your facility waste collection while promoting proper hygiene and health. You can also optimize spaces, costs, and efficiency. By replacing multiple, randomly located trash receptacles with strategically placed waste stations, you can also improve convenience and boost sustainability programs with separate receptacles for garbage and recyclable materials.

Optimization

Improve the health and user experiences of the people in your facilities.

Recycling programs are more successful when receptacles are conveniently located and clearly marked.

Mismanaged waste collection can increase the risk of exposure to infection.
